Take a Chance at Finding True love—Bibliophile Style

Blind Date with a Book is back for a third year!

Is it going to be awhile before your favorite author puts out a new book? From February 4 thru March 2, take a chance on something new—take an unknown book on blind date.

Here are the rules:

1. Choose from one of the wrapped books on the display table (no more than two can be checked out at a time).
2. The Patron may not unwrap the book(s) before check out and must take the book home.
3. Read the book.
4. Fill out the Rate the Date slip included with the book.
5. Return the slip to the Circulation Desk. When you turn your slip in, you can pick up a coupon for a free treat.

The slips will go into a drawing for prizes at the end of the program!
